

For each of the sentences below, write whether the selected word is a subject (S)
predicate (P)
neither (N)

1. Deep, heavy snows cover these mountains in winter.
_____ cover _____ mountain
2. Expeditions to the Southwest challenged his ideas about the location of minerals.
_____ expeditions _____ challenged
3. Knowing that information, you should not have any trouble.
_____ knowing _____ you _____ should have
4. Will you be arriving on the 10:20 train?
_____ will be arriving _____ train
5. Please eat your spinach.
_____ eat _____ spinach
6. About an hour ago, Ralph called the station for directions.
_____ Ralph _____ called
7. Each new year brings new hope.
_____ year _____ hope
8. All instructions were strictly followed by each participant.
_____ were followed _____ participant
9. He was mugged by a stranger.
_____ he _____ stranger
10. Rainy days bring flowers.
_____ days _____ bring