Title of Piece: Author:
Subject	The general topic, content, and ideas contained in the text. What is this piece about?
Occasion	The time and place of the piece; the current situation or context which gave rise to the writing or speech.
Audience	The group of readers to whom this piece is directed. The audience may be one person, a small group, or a large group. What qualities, beliefs, or values do the audience members have in common?
Purpose	The reason behind the text. What does the speaker, writer, or filmmaker want the audience to do, feel, say or choose? In literature, we call this the theme of the piece.
Speaker	The voice that tells the story, or in nonfiction, the author. What do we know about the writer's life and views that shape this text?
Tone	What choice of words and use of rhetorical devices let you know the speaker's tone? Is the tone light-hearted or deadly serious? Mischievous or ironic?
