

TRANSITIVE AND INTRANSITIVE VERBS

Verbs in a sentence can be of two kinds: verbs which are conjugated in the form of a noun or pronoun to complete the meaning. This subject is treated in the next lesson. "Verbless sentences".

Example: The students are conjugating.

Verbs in the sentence which conjugate:

Conjugate verbs.

What are the conjugate verbs?

Example: Subject + verb + object.

Verbs in a sentence can be of two kinds: verbs which are conjugated in the form of a noun or pronoun to complete the meaning. The students are conjugating.

Now read if you can identify the verbs in the following sentences. Write a line under the verbs and in the blank space, write transitive or intransitive.

1. The conjugate verbs are the verbs. _____
2. What are the conjugate verbs? _____
3. What verbs are conjugated in the sentence? _____
4. What verbs are conjugated in the sentence? _____
5. What verbs are conjugated in the sentence? _____
6. What verbs are conjugated in the sentence? _____
7. What verbs are conjugated in the sentence? _____