

Name _____

All About Fables

Fables, folktales, and myths are all stories that have been passed down from generation to generation.

Fables have a moral or a lesson. The characters are usually talking animals.

Name of story

What kind of animals are the characters?

Do they talk? _____

Characters

Tell about one character in the story and draw a picture.

Lesson

What is the lesson learned in the story?

