Passive Voice Worksheet

Active voice is when the subject performs the action expressed in the verb. (Ex. The man mailed the letter.)

Passive voice is when the subject is no longer active, but is, instead, being acted upon by the verb. (Ex. Hamburgers are being eaten.)

Directions: Read each sentence and change each active voice sentence to a passive voice sentence.

Example A: The teacher is reading the book.

Answer: The book is being read by the teacher.

1. The dog was biting the girl.

2. Einstein presented research at the conference.

3. Clean-up teams will remove large chunks of dirt from the street.

4. The researcher will publish results in the journal.

5. The class is reading the book.

6. Stephen mailed the letter.

7. At the concert, the artist sang at least one tune from a well-known era.
