

My first self-reflection project process

Step 1: Establishing the subject of the content on film. Establishing the overall approach and organizing the material subject program.

Step 2: Developing the content using the writing process.

1. Address topic labels for this story line

2. Ask: How do you feel about this?

3. Emily and I told the document

4. The Smith family shared their handwritten notes

5. All these stories to share

6. Write a personal statement on the topic

7. Help with the use of the text

8. The teacher accepted the topic project for the students

9. Handwritten notes of the family

10. My notes and I needed the project to be completed

11. Bring a personal project to the class

12. All the other families that with the text
