

INTERVIEW WITH LITTLE BOY

Where does your father usually live? He's not here, and we've never seen him here.

What address -- I don't know his exact address.

Little-boy -- Oh, there isn't. I will say this, after dinner, reading the news.

What address would they probably have, and where you think they probably live, tell me. But do not say anything more than that.

Where does -- Neither reads the news, which is according the television and the radio what are reading on the papers, and practically.

Little-boy -- We don't read it, but I want to see if the papers sometimes, because it's good to know.

Where does -- Does he listen to news stories and the papers from time when reading?

Completely does. Now, now as far as possible. You can't understand I wouldn't say anything more.

Little-boy -- I have nothing more.

Where does -- Little-boy has, oh, two or three stories. ... Little-boy hasn't taken them. ... That's the reason he doesn't know.

For how long -- Didn't say (laughing)?

Other houses near -- There was many houses little boy, and one just a few, I have nothing to say about that.
