

The Magic School Bus Likes the Wind
by Anne Gersen, Illustrated by Carolyn Bracken

How to use: Fold and glue the book together. Follow the word cards, and try completing the activity sheets.

Wind Makes Things Move

The wind makes many things move. In the boxes below read the word and draw a picture of the thing moving in the wind.

Directions:
Turn to the word cards, write pictures in the boxes, including word labels. My, my, my! Then use the words that come up as you are reading. Write the word labels inside each character's eye and draw the things that move.

Box for drawing: Leaf

Box for drawing: Windmill

Box for drawing: Sailboat

Look around your home or yard for things that move in the wind. Look at the book again to see things that move in the wind. Fill in these boxes with things you choose.

Box for drawing: _____

Box for drawing: _____

Box for drawing: _____

WORD RECOGNITION: leaf, windmill, sailboat (with word labels) (with word labels) (with word labels)