

Male Reproductive System

1. External organs are visible on the outside of the body. Complete the following chart using information about male external organs.

Penis

Scrotum

2. Complete the following chart using information about the male internal organs and sperm.

Testes or testicles

Sperm

Epididymis

Vas deferens

3. What is an orgasm?

4. Along the route between the vas deferens and the urethra are three glands. Complete the following chart with information on these glands.

Seminal vesicles

Prostate gland

Cowper's glands

What do they do?

5. What is the job of the male reproductive system?

6. What is puberty? How is puberty triggered in males?

7. There is a great deal of _____, but on the average, puberty in males begins somewhere between _____ and _____ years of age. The entire process lasts from _____ to _____ years.

8. What is the first sign of male puberty?

9. Several months after the testes begin to grow, rising levels of _____ start the growth of the _____ and _____. The penis continues to grow until males reach about _____ years of age. Erections and orgasm become much more _____ in early stages of puberty and are accompanied by an increase in _____.

10. Soon after a boy's genitals begin to grow, what appears? How is this characterized?

11. Hormones cause the _____, or the voice box, to enlarge. The larger the voice box grows and the thicker the vocal cords, the _____ the voice goes.

12. What is true of male puberty compared to female puberty?

13. What are the two most important steps for men to take so they remain in charge of their own health?