When Anna arrived to our class, everybody believed that she was very (1) _____ person. She did not talk to anyone, did not want to make friends, and usually sat on her own. Sometimes she even seemed to be (2) _____ because she would behave as if she did not know you, if she met you in the town. Everybody agreed that it was really offensive.

However, Ignacia was a really (3) _____ girl. She did not give up once she made up her mind. So, she decided to find out what was going on with Anna.

First, she thought that Anna was (4) _____ and that was why she always seemed as if she was going to fall asleep in class. So, she asked her one day:

"Do you sleep enough at night? What time do you go to bed?"

Anna was really shocked with this question. So, her answer was:

"Mind your own business!", which everybody agreed was a really bad form, or as Anna said:

"I did not expect her to be so (5) _____."

However, Ignacia's personality was sometimes bordering on being (6) _____ because she would not change her mind even if everybody told her that she was wrong. So, she continued insisting and trying to be Anna's friend.

Despite Ignacia's best intentions her (7) _____ behaviour, basically her being so strong and confident that she will "solve" that problem, got on Anna's nerves. Finally, one day she could not take it anymore.

"Listen!", she said to Ignacia, "I know you mean well, but I am (8) _____ or more politely said – bored, with you following me around. I am
