

Name _____

Date _____

Reading Like a Historian, Pgs. 101

101.102

1. Describe the printing on 102.
2. What are the two types of sources a historian might use?
3. Describe each source in your own words.

101 Primary Sources

4. What is the primary source on page 102?
5. What are two important questions you might ask when looking at a primary source document?

101 Secondary Sources

6. What is the secondary source on page 102?
7. What are two important questions you might ask when looking at the secondary source document?

101 Artifacts

8. List 5 items that might be considered artifacts.
9. What are two questions you might ask when you are looking at an artifact?

101 Historical Maps

10. How do you look at a historical map differently than a modern map? Use the questions on the page to help you find the answer.

101 Historical Photos

11. Describe how best to analyze a photograph using the thinking tool about history.

101 Current Events

12. Using the list of potential current questions, analyze the current event with your group's strategy.