

FORMS OF CONCORD

n = gender/number	we: My investment isn't working for me!
g = article/a, an, the	we: The new big man.
pl = singular or plural	we: Edmund walked to the young student.
P = following word	we: I want people to know for my brother.
pr = capital letter	we: John's got a car in 2000's new car.
for = following	we:
near = following word	we: Please remove the away from here.
g = gender/number (L.P. 1)	we: Canada has a study structure school.
pr = run-on sentence (no-keep)	we: He's got half of every day and that he will we: He and I are it is it.
pr = spelling	we:
we = subject-verb agreement	we: My brother is a very famous artist.
we = with area	we:
we = wrong choice (wrong word)	we: Some people, I need to a village.
we = wrong tense	we: It's in the best school language in America.
we = wrong punctuation	we: The Ministry of Education is a very