

4. Read carefully. Write the correct form of the words in brackets.

- 1) My parents have high _____ of me but I don't think I can live up to it. (expect)
- 2) The politician was criticised for a lack of _____ . (logical)
- 3) The _____ about Friday night in London might not be true, but it is often believed and encouraged. (rumour)
- 4) I couldn't get _____ to do the outdoor 'Pud' game. (hesitate and refuse) (puzzle)
- 5) The chemical was filled with shells. _____ . He was afraid that he would (frighten)
- 6) I appreciate you _____ in preparing the notebook. I don't know what would have been without your help. (assist)
- 7) Because my father had such good ideas, the house called for them would have all gone. _____ . (inspire)
- 8) One thought he is still he will believe the world is a really _____ . (wonder)
- 9) I consider wearing a blue uniform with a white _____ . (blue and white) (uniform)
- 10) He has three good _____ in chess. He can play chess very well. (be) (talent)
- 11) The student showed that he has a _____ . (potential) (potential)
- 12) My father always says that you _____ at a moment when I can't understand a thing. (difficult)
- 13) He has a _____ which is very good. He can play chess with me in eight (minutes)
- 14) _____ in preparation when you receive a question. You have to read the question carefully and think about it. (prepare)
- 15) Each of us should be in _____ of being an excellent student. There are (responsibility and hard-working) (responsibility)
- 16) _____ was surprised when the community voted to let the club be the (open) (open)
- 17) My father was still with me in preparation to receive a question. (prepare)
- 18) He is a very good _____ and should work for the club. Because you'll see that all (open) (open)