's Artist's Statement

| Tour marite here |               |              |             |                |            |       |  |  |
|------------------|---------------|--------------|-------------|----------------|------------|-------|--|--|
| Write a          | a short state | ment about t | the importa | ince of art ir | your life. |       |  |  |
|                  |               |              |             |                |            | _ |  |  |
|                  |               |              |             |                |            | _ |  |  |
|                  |               |              |             |                |            | _     |  |  |

Here are some ways you might begin your statement.

I have learned... Art can be... Art is...

My inspiration comes from...

Art makes me feel... When I create art...

I am an artist because...