

The Gettysburg Address spoke about the fear that:

1. the nation might not last
2. the nation might have slavery
3. the people might be forgotten
4. the people might destroy themselves

Answer

1

Hint

What was Abraham Lincoln afraid of?

Reason

The Gettysburg Address addressed the fear that the nation might not last through such a violent and divided time.