CLAIMS

Make sure to begin your essay with a sentence that is aimed at "grabbing" the reader's attention and establishing a credible thesis that you can carry through to your conclusion and your steps.

PHRASES

An essay should have a clear and lasting impression on the reader. The best essays are ones that refer back to the question that you need to your problem.

Caution: How will you effectively capture or "grab" the reader's interest?

Tip-off: What thought-provoking idea will you offer the reader to think about?

Organization

The arrangement of content. The order developed and treatment within and across paragraphs using transitional devices and including introduction and conclusion.

Alert!

Look over your three arguments or subtopics and decide the best order for the three paragraphs that will make up the body of your essay. Use the checklist provided to determine the order in which you will present your three arguments or subtopics.
