

Introduction

Objectives

- Students will learn the words that make up contractions.
- Students will be able to pronounce each word that makes up a contraction.

Materials

- Or teacher knowledge and skill
- Highlighters, pens/pencil

Activities

- Students will get copies of contractions and they will be able to identify each contraction.
- Students will then pronounce them. They will use the highlighters and pens/pencil to underline each word.
- Students will have to separate the contractions into words and then write them down.