

Name: _____

Date: _____

Compound Direct Objects Worksheet

A direct object is one type of complement. It is a noun or a pronoun that receives the action of the verb or shows the result of the action. A direct object tells what or whom after an action verb. A compound direct object refers to two direct objects in the Directions: Underline the compound direct objects in each sentence below.

Example A: After the game, we went to the donut shop and thrift store.

Answer: After the game, we went to the donut shop and thrift store.

1. My friend hid the soda and cookies.
2. We ran to the park and basketball court.
3. My sister went to school and church.
4. The tornado tore down our roof and fence.
5. John called David and Stephen.
6. I ate the milk and cookies.
7. I built a wall and garden.
8. On Tuesday, I rode my bike to the gym.
9. They made chairs and tables at the store.
10. I had to clean my bathroom, bedroom and living room.