

Name: _____

Date: _____

Am, Is or Are "To be" Verbs Worksheet

"Am, is and are" are the present tense form of the verb "to be."

Directions: Read each sentence below and circle "was" or "were" to complete each sentence correctly.

Example A: I (am / is / are) walking with my friends.

Answer: am

1. We (am / is / are) not interested in purchasing a new car.
2. She (am / is / are) a very reliable friend.
3. I (am / is / are) astounded by all the help I've been given.
4. We (am / is / are) happy with the results.
5. The man (am / is / are) satisfied with his purchase.
6. The boy (am / is / are) noticeably frightened.
7. Stacey (am / is / are) giving a lot of effort in the class.
8. We (am / is / are) not afraid of the scary movie.
9. The girl (am / is / are) looking for her lost dog.
10. My mother (am / is / are) going to attend the conference.
11. The men (am / is / are) working on the railroad.
12. We (am / is / are) not satisfied with the results.