

Q.3: Write true or false.

/3

- i) The equatorial forests are close to the equator. ( )
- ii) Temperate forests are called wetland. ( )
- iii) Southern part of Greenland is inhabited. ( )
- iv) Antarctica has 2000 to 3000 meters high mountains. ( )
- v) Roots of plants help to keep the soil being washed away. ( )
- vi) Conifers have needle like leaves. ( )

Q.4: Fill in the blanks.

/3

- i) The first man to reach the south pole was _____ in 1911.
- ii) There are no penguins in the _____.
- iii) For transport in Arctic region _____ are used, which are light boats made of animals skin.
- iv) The first man to reach the North pole was _____ in 1909.
- v) A special condition caused by extreme cold affecting the hands and feet is _____.
- vi) The first Greek explorer to reach Arctic was _____.

Q.5: Differentiate between equatorial and temperate forest according to climate, trees and animals.

/6

	Equatorial Forest	Temperate Forest
i) Climate	_____ _____ _____	_____ _____ _____
ii) Trees	_____ _____ _____	_____ _____ _____
iii) Animals	_____ _____ _____	_____ _____ _____