Name:_____

Date:_____

1. Miranda had 34 cookies for her party. She distributed them to each of her 8 guests equally. How many cookies did each guest receive? _____

2. Mrs. Whitman had 41 pencils to give to her students. She had 16 students. How many pencils would they each get? _____

    How many are left over? _____

3. There were 58 party favors and 9 children. How many party favors would each child get if they were divided equally among them?

    _____

4. Max had 19 stuffed animals to donate to 3 charities. He wanted to donate an equal amount of stuffed animals to each charity. How many stuffed animals can he donate to each charity? _____
    How many stuffed animals would be left over?

    _____

5. Melissa had 44 turquoise beads. She wanted to include 9 beads on each bracelet. How many bracelets could she make? _____