

CUBING:

Cut around the diagonal line. Fold at the dotted lines, and use tape or glue to make into a cube. Do each of the six activities in any order you choose. There is a space and time to finish out what you are doing next.

All assignments are due in final form on _____

Draw a diagram of the Anne's world. Label the rooms and any unique features that have been mentioned in the diary.

Is there any humor in Anne's diary? What effect does that have on our perception of Anne, Frank, and her situation?

Write a 3-5 paragraph response.

"It's really a wonder that I haven't dropped off my sanity because they seem so absurd and impossible to carry out. Yet I do go there, though in spite of everything, I still believe that people are really good at heart."

Do you agree that people are naturally "good at heart"? Discuss this idea with students and be prepared to share your thoughts with the class.

ANSWER
Anne's community has changed. During the Nazi occupation, Anne's community was divided into two groups: the Jews and the Germans. This is a very difficult concept for students to understand. They may have trouble understanding the concept of antisemitism. They may also have trouble understanding the concept of Nazism. This is a very difficult concept for students to understand.
