

Consonant digraphs th and sh

- Rule: A consonant digraph is two consonants that are together. They stand for one sound.
You can hear a consonant digraph at the beginning of some words.
You can hear a consonant digraph at the end of some.

1. Write the missing letters to complete the word.

_____ sh

th _____

_____ sh

_____ th

_____ th

sh _____

2. Help the children catch their fish. Read each child's name.
Look for the fish that have words with the same th or sh sound. Write each word under the child's name.