

Adjectives for Describing Personality

brave - someone who isn't afraid of danger.

chatty - someone who talks a lot.

clever - good at learning things.

courageous - (mostly negative) Someone who is afraid of things. (often described as 'a bit of a coward') easy-going - someone who is easy to get along with.

friendly - someone who is nice to other people.

funny - used to describe someone who is amusing.

generous - someone who shares their time or things with others.

grumpy - bad-tempered.

hard-working - someone who works very hard.

honest - someone who is truthful and who doesn't cheat or steal.

kind - someone who behaves in a caring way towards other people.

lazy - an inactive person who avoids work.

loud - someone who talks really loudly.

lucky - someone who often has good fortune.

mean - 1) Someone who is a nasty person. 2) Someone who doesn't like spending money.

needy - adjective used to describe someone who behaves differently every time you meet them.

nasty - a mean, unpleasant person. (the opposite of nice) naughty - a person who is very bad.

nerveless - someone who is easily startled by things.

nice - someone who is friendly and kind. (the opposite of nasty) polite - someone who has good manners.

popular - somebody who is liked by many people.

quiet - used to describe someone who doesn't talk very much.

rude - bad manners, impolite.

selfish - used to describe someone who only thinks about themselves.

silly - someone who is always very foolish (the opposite of silly).