

Cooking to Learn 1 PCI964

BENEFITS

Motivate students to practice basic reading and writing skills with this fun binder full of easy-to-follow recipes and corresponding worksheets. Cooking activities offer “real-world” life skills experience as students prepare recipes themselves using inexpensive ingredients. Each recipe features illustrated and non-illustrated activities to allow teachers to use the same lesson plan with students of varying abilities.

FEATURES

This unique, best-selling program was designed to provide “hands-on” ways to help students improve reading comprehension, vocabulary, expressive language, problem-solving skills, written language skills, and social skills. Multiple-choice activities (in both illustrated and non-illustrated versions) prepare students for standardized testing formats.

BINDER 1

This 290-page Teacher’s Binder offers 29 cooking activities. Recipes include strawberry banana waffle, grilled cheese sandwich, pita sandwich, ravioli, fruit salad, no bake cookies, stuffed celery, raspberry orange blend, and more.

FORMAT

Each reading lesson follows this format: materials needed, directions, comprehension questions (both multiple choice and short answer), closing activity, and writing activity.

SIMPLE TASKS

Each activity covers simple tasks. Activities include easy-to-follow directions. Illustrations are designed for beginning readers who need picture-cue assistance in learning to read. The non-illustrated activities are for students who have mastered basic reading skills and need to focus on reading comprehension.
