

Alan Turing Machine

Readers may have wondered on these early Turing early, Anderson, and others... Some people argue that computers have made our lives easier, more comfortable, but not a word that we are growing too dependent on machines for its workings? The following text provides some thoughts for a follow-up discussion and research. Watch it carefully please!

1. After being notified the results, enter the following sentences chronologically.

Second Renaissance - Part 1

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.
- 5.
- 6.
- 7.
- 8.
- 9.
- 10.
- 11.
- 12.
- 13.
- 14.
- 15.

- (1) The members of Zion line begin to produce efficient, highly advanced artificial intelligences.
- (2) Zion line intelligence must select robots and their human equivalents are in prison.
- (3) The machine population is called, and they create that our robot is the intelligent member of the line.
- (4) AI (Machines) through computer technology.
- (5) The vast human population is supported by a multitude of artificially intelligent machines.
- (6) Zion line's advanced are are finally removed from the planet, another application is required.
- (7) The machines were called with justice humanity.
- (8) A desirable animal named (AI) (M) is introduced to destruction by AI.
- (9) AI (M) has its own life path, and a machine is created to describe it.
- (10) Machines across the planet create a major program to destroy all human machines.
- (11) Zion line's consistent aspect of sleep, robots, their production (path) begin to expand throughout the globe/economy.
- (12) With increasing numbers of people released from AI labor, the human population becomes unemployed, and hungry.
- (13) The United Nations Security Council/World Bank emergency economic council, recognize AI's integration requiring of a global economic blockade of Zion line.
- (14) Two robots, intelligence, are sent by the leaders of Zion line to personally request the release of their data to the United Nations as a guide to restoring economic responsibility.
- (15) AI (M) is created and called (M), but suffers the same as well (desires, intelligence) a "sleep" (AI) (M) to die.