Old Monkey
Red Monkey
Blue Monkey
Yellow Monkey

Act I

(Music is shown as birds)

Stone Monkey: Hello! Hello! Here I am. I am a monkey, but I have golden hair.

Old Monkey: Hello! Hello! Where do you come from?

Stone Monkey: I come from THAT place.

Red Monkey: What is your name?

Stone Monkey: I don't know. I don't know.

Blue Monkey: Well, you come from THAT place. Let's call you "Stone Monkey." Let's be friends!

Stone Monkey: Good!

Blue Monkey: Let's go play near the river.

Stone Monkey: Oh, so beautiful! Really, that?

Old Monkey: That's Water-Curtain Cave, a cave behind the Fall. But no one has been there. If you can go there, you will be our king.

(Music) Stone Monkey jumps into the river.)

Act II

Red Monkey: Oh! He is so brave!

Blue Monkey: It is dangerous. Maybe he will die in the water.

Old Monkey: He is at the river back now.

Yellow Monkey: Look! He is going through the Fall.

Red Monkey: Look! He is entering the cave. Good! Good! Good!

Old Monkey: Look! He is coming out of the cave.

Red Monkey: Good! He is still alive.

Old Monkey: Good! He is so brave!

Yellow Monkey: Look! He is jumping into the river again.

Blue Monkey: Look! He is entering the cave.
