

For Purple Mountains' Majesty

1. What type of genre is For Purple Mountains' Majesty?
2. How does the author give the mountain a human quality?
3. Find and describe one simile. What does this simile mean?
4. What other similes can you make about mountains?
5. Why did the author write this poem?

Secret Driving

1. By looking at the picture, what can the you think reader driving is?
2. "A bag, which flew by like a silent jet." What type of figurative language is this? How is a jet like a wheel?
3. In this poem, agricultural tools are compared to what? What other could compare to this?
4. How do we know that this author's driving trip is not finished?
5. In this author's trip continues, what else do you think he would do? Can you write to continue this poem. (??)

I Love the Look of Words

1. What is this poem about?
2. How does the author give human qualities to words? What type of figurative language is this?
3. How does the author compare two unlike things?
4. "I love the reader who's thinking in my mind." What do you think the author means by this?
5. Draw a picture of the thinking you did today... what words or images would be helpful to your mind?
6. Why do you think this author loves words? What words do you love? List five and give them human qualities.