

Abel brought a lamb. God accepted his offering.

Cain brought plants and vegetables. This did not show that sin brings death. No blood was given.

God did not accept Cain's offering. Cain became angry.

God said to Cain, "Why are you angry? If you had brought the right offering, it would have been ok. You did not do right. There is no blood to cover your sin--sin is still with you. You need to get control over the sin."

Cain was still angry. He did not say he was sorry. He did not go and get the right offering.

Cain did not give up being angry. He went to see Abel. He asked Abel to go for a walk with him in a field. While they were walking, Cain killed Abel.

God came to Cain and said, "Where is your brother, Abel?"

Cain said, "I do not know. Do I watch over my brother?"

God said, "I know what you did. Now the ground will not grow the plants and vegetables that you love. You will have to keep moving from place to place."

Cain was very sad! He said, "That is too hard! I will now have to go away from Your face. I will have to keep moving. Someone will try to kill me."
