

Name: _____

Date: _____

Constitution Day Math

The Constitution is a very important document for the United States. It was signed on September, _____.
_____. On this day, _____ people attended the Constitutional Convention. The oldest person at the Constitutional Convention was Benjamin Franklin. He was _____ years old. The youngest attendee was _____ years old, named Jonathan Dayton.

The Constitution is very important because it sets up _____ branches of our government. The legislative branch makes the laws, and is made up of _____ representatives in the House of Representatives and _____ senators (_____ per state). The executive branch makes sure the laws are carried out, and the judicial branch interprets the laws.