

FORMING CORRECT SENTENCES

1.1) Put the words in brackets in the right order as shown to form a sentence.

- a- Anne goes to the cinema on weekends. (to cinema she goes)
- b- We eat chicken on Sunday. (chicken we eat)
- c- (Paul football likes)
- d- I (sisters two have)
- e- English at Petra International school (studying we are)
- f- I (every morning get up)
- g- a doctor (is my brother)
- h-at home (parents are my)

1.2) Use the words in the brackets to form sentences

- a- (James/apple/ate/a/n)
- b- (Beijing/ went/they/to).....
- c- (has/new/she/a/phone/cell).....
- d- (I/pizza/ate/a/for/lunch).....
- e- (studying/I/enjoy/English).....
- f- (?/you/a/are/student).....
- g- (bought/sister/I/a/my/watch/for).....
- h- (my/ is/ Jack/ friend/ best).....

Complete this passage. The verb in bracket is to be changed to tell us what happened (past tense).

My friend, Roy, (die) last year. He (leave) his CD player and his collection of CDs. Roy (spend) a lot of money on CDs. He (buy) one or two new CDs every week. He never (go) to the cinema or theatre. He (stay) at home every evening and (listen) to music. He often (lend) CDs to his friends. Sometimes, they (keep) them and never (return) them. He (lose) many CDs in this way. He (is) such a nice person.