

FIND SOMEONE WHO.....

(use simple and present perfect)

	NUMBER
... has been abroad more than five times
... has been to university (and not university work)
... has been to love more than three times (and not love)
... met another partner (husband/wife/partner etc.) in Vietnam (once)
... has had more than four different jobs (and not jobs)
... has changed a baby's nappy
... has lived in another present address more than six years
... had a holiday job which started with a student (and not job)
... met Sam in Vietnam
... has been to Portugal (and not where they were)
... went on holiday last Christmas (and not Christmas, once)
... has been to Australia (and not where they were)
... has had a party for more than thirty people (and not the class)
... has written a love letter (and not love)
... has been to Iceland (and not where they were)
... has lived that long (and not how long)
... has read a book by a British author (and not where they were)

Exercises

1. Have you been to Portugal?
 - a. Where did you go?
 - b. How long?
2. I want to travel.
 - a. Where should you go (with Sam)?
 - b. How long?
 - c. Where should you meet?
 - d. How many people?