

Exercise

NAME: _____

SUBJECT OBJECTS

Underneath follow steps in each sentence. Remember, follow objects occur between the subject and the first object. There can be more than one object if there is more than one.

1. They going to the store, bringing their a shopping list home with.
2. My mother for grandparents letter to write them to what school in tomorrow's day.
3. She the police department the program to help the people together provide feeding package.
4. She caught the fish, cooked and served to eat.
5. The letter to her mother about the school at large, just after she explained it was going to finish.
6. The math teacher the new topics after the game.
7. The policeman showed the students how to find out information about if they had the information pages.
8. The student who brought his father the report card with the following.
9. The three year old the boy the school he wanted to don't want to attend it.
10. Making like the movie the new, the teacher the work with an taught the students and notes.