

Literature Research Citations in a FLASH

This worksheet helps you organize your search and citations for the resources on your topic. For easy navigation, use the tan sidebar on the LRC home page (<http://www.tcc.edu/lrc/index.htm>).

Name: _____
Instructor: _____
Class: _____
Date: _____

Author/Title of literary work/Topic: _____

LIBRARY CATALOG

Keyword Search: Use your author, title of the work, topic, genre (short story, poetry, drama, etc.)

Keyword(s):	Title
Examples: Author and title: Faulkner and Bear Author and topic: Faulkner and southern literature	Author	Place: Publisher, Date <small>Hint: Click the record number in the # column to view the full record.</small>	Call Number	Campus

Subject (LC) begins with... Use your topic or author (lastname, firstname) as the LC subject.

Subject:	Title
Examples: Faulkner William Southern Literature Drama	Author	Place: Publisher, Date <small>Hint: Click the record number in the # column to view the full record.</small>	Call Number	Campus

SUBJECT INDEXES & DATABASES

In addition to our full text databases, we have many databases especially useful for literature research. Use the Literature subject guide to locate databases. Many of these indexes and databases duplicate or overlap in coverage, but each is unique in arrangement and format.

Name of database:
Title of article:
Author:	Publication name	Date/Volume/Pages
Name of database:
Title of article:
Author:	Publication name	Date/Volume/Pages