

Worksheet on Fragments and Run-ons

Mark C for a complete sentence, and mark F for a fragment. Make the fragments into complete sentences by adding a subject, a verb, or both, and a period at the end.

1. I was late for class
2. As we wait for the rain to stop
3. When Alex phones
4. She goes to Centennial College
5. Until you eat your vegetables
6. They plan to visit Nova Scotia this summer
7. Ate at a famous restaurant
8. Even though I was tired
9. While working the night shift
10. For example, hockey and skating
11. After she finished her essay
12. Expecting to hear from you soon
13. Provided that you pass the exam
14. Before you leave
15. Although he was shy

Complete the sentence with an appropriate independent clause. Add commas where necessary.

1. Even though it was raining _____
2. _____ until we bought the car.
3. If you want to do well in your essay _____
4. Having moved to a new country _____
5. _____ before I change my mind.
6. Although she was late _____.
7. _____ because he studies regularly.
8. _____ like baseball, basketball, and volleyball.
9. _____ after I proofread it.
10. _____ as soon as I finish the assignment.

Correct each of the following run-on sentences.

1. I washed the dishes then I did the laundry.