

NAME _____

DATE _____

VETERANS DAY

FACT AND OPINION

A Day to Remember

If the statement is a fact, color the star red.

If the statement is an opinion, color the star blue.

1.  Men and women who serve in the military should feel proud.
2.  A veteran is someone who has served in the military.
3.  World War I ended on November 11, 1918.
4.  World War I was the worst war ever fought.
5.  Veterans Day was first celebrated in 1919.
6.  Veterans Day is the most important American holiday.
7.  The best way to spend Veterans Day is watching a parade.
8.  Early plans for Veterans Day called for parades and public meetings.
9.  Veterans Day became a legal holiday in 1938.
10.  Our town always has the best Veterans Day parade around.
11.  We should honor veterans more than once a year.
12.  On Veterans Day, we honor soldiers who served to protect our country.
13.  Dwight D. Eisenhower was the country's best president.
14.  President Eisenhower set up a committee to plan this holiday.
15.  For seven years in a row, Veterans Day was celebrated on a Monday.
16.  Veterans Day should always be observed on a Monday.
17.  Veterans Day was moved back to its original date in 1975.
18.  Watching a parade makes you feel proud of veterans.
19.  It's more important to observe Veterans Day than Presidents' Day.
20.  The day of the week doesn't affect Veterans Day; it is always celebrated on November 11.

 The holiday observed on November 11 wasn't always called Veterans Day. To find out its other name, write the letters from the stars on the matching line or lines below.

_____
 _____
 _____

Bonus: Write three opinion statements about Veterans Day.

© 2007 by Linda Ward Beech, Scholastic Teaching Resources