

Air Pollution Worksheet

Click on each icon to find the information you need to fill in the table beneath it. When you've completed the worksheet, print it for your file.

What does smog look like?
How does it affect people?
What kinds of people are most vulnerable to its effects?
Nitrogen oxides and VOC are some of the main chemicals in smog. Where do they come from?
Two main chemicals react in sunlight and stagnant air to produce ground-level ozone. What are they called?
Apart from damaging human health, what other effects does ground-level ozone have? Name three.	1) 2) 3)