

Reading Workshop, December 7-11, 2009
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25 26 27
Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
Student Model Power Paragraph	Student Model Power Paragraph	Student Model Power Paragraph	Student Model Power Paragraph	Student Model Power Paragraph
Theme This Week:		Readers retell the most important parts of a story.
D.I.P.	D.I.P.	D.I.P.	D.I.P.	D.I.P.
NWEA Word:	NWEA Word:	NWEA Word:	NWEA Word:	NWEA Word:
An index helps you to find information on a specific topic.	The main idea is the most important point that the writer wishes to express.	A nursery rhyme is a tale rhymed in verse for children.	A personal narrative covers an event in the writer's life.	A prefix is joined before a root or a stem.
Writing Conventions Workshop Lesson: W	Writing Conventions Workshop Lesson: W	Writing Conventions Workshop Lesson: W	Writing Conventions Workshop Lesson: W	Writing Conventions Workshop Lesson: W
Quotation Marks in poems, stories, or in songs. Use an index to find poems.	Direct quotations	Quotations in nursery rhymes	Quotation marks search in personal narratives.	Quotation marks search in literature
Reading Workshop Strategies:	Reading Workshop Strategies:	Reading Workshop Strategies:	Reading Workshop Strategies:	Reading Workshop Strategies:
Reading Inside the Box	Reading Inside the Box	Reading Inside the Box	Reading Inside the Box	Reading Inside the Box
Character Webs	Sequencing Ideas	Story Map	Plot Graph	Fiction or Nonfiction
Basal Lesson:	Basal Lesson:	Basal Lesson:	Basal Lesson:	Basal Lesson:
Realistic Fiction	Predict/Infer	Problem-Solving	Calendar	Using Context