

Name: _____

Date: _____

Commas after an Introductory Phrase or Clause Worksheet

Commas you use in writing are similar to pauses you use in speech. Commas are also used to group similar items together.

Use a comma after an introductory phrase or clause.

Directions: Re-Write each sentence below. Add commas to each introductory phrase or clause.

Example A: During the evening I like to watch the local news on television.

Answer: During the evening, I like to watch the local news on television.

1. Hello welcome to our hotel.

2. In the morning we woke up early to go fishing.

3. Okay once we finish eating we will play tennis at the park.

4. Yes I would like another piece of pizza.

5. From our window on the third floor I can see all the people below.

6. To avoid traffic my dad took an alternate route.

7. Well this may be the last solution to the problem.

Commas after an Introductory Phrase or Clause Worksheet