

2.1

Word Detective

Use the context of the sentences below to figure out the meaning of the underlined word.
Fill in the meaning in the blank and circle the words that helped you figure it out.

middle point

unexpected or undesirable event peaceful slightly wet

have the same viewpoint

destroy

1. The teacher was very excited that her class was calm during recess since they are usually wild and crazy.

2. Even though it was raining hard the boy only got a little damp since he was wearing a rain jacket.

3. Jack wanted to agree with his friend about what to eat for lunch but they did not like the same foods.

4. The preschooler thought it was more fun to demolish the tower than to build it up.

5. The dog didn't knock over the glass on purpose it was just an accident.

6. The archer wanted his arrow to hit the center of the target so he was sad when it hit the outside rings.

Challenge!

Tell about a time that it was very hard to be calm and draw it below