

Name: _____

Middle School Level Test - Grammar

Sometimes the same word can be a noun, verb, or adjective, depending on how that word is used. Study the five underlined words in each sentence and choose if they are nouns, verbs, or adjectives.

1. She was not there for the party because she was working that night.
2. The assistant stopped when she introduced the book.
3. The seat has a comfortable and relaxing quality to it. Comfortably, quickly, and relaxed should describe it.

Write the two underlined words in each sentence and show on they are nouns, verbs, or adjectives.

4. The assistant said it was more like a night than than it is.
5. Even though the seat was not that good.
6. My doctor said it was enough to stop all the parts to the diagnose the.

Which sentence is correct?

7. Here is the best comprehensive book.
 Here is the best comprehensive book.
8. Here is the best comprehensive book.
 Here is the best comprehensive book.

Synonyms are words that have the same or similar meanings. Write the highlighted word in each sentence - underline its synonym.

Example: The intelligent boy was very smart. (intelligent, very, smart)

9. The assistant's responsibility was about half of the work that you didn't understand the importance of it.
10. The word of the book was not the same as the word of the book.
11. The word of the book was not the same as the word of the book.

Choose the right preposition.

12. She will travel to London in 2020.

- in on at for

13. She is going to the park.

- in on with at

14. She is going to the park.

- in on at for