

Student's Profile: Example for Dennis Mitchell

(To be completed by parents or the student)

A. Likes/Dislikes What does your child like to do? or What do you like to do?	B. Strengths/Abilities What/how is your child learning, growing, socializing? or How do you learn new things? What do you do with friends?
--	---

Likes . . .

1. Dennis likes to be busy doing things; he is very active.
2. He likes to talk and can carry on in depth conversation.
3. He is comfortable talking to, and being with, adults.
4. He has a great sense of humor. He loves to play tricks on his friends and neighbors, especially Mr. Wilson, and is puzzled if they get angry or upset.

Dislikes . . .

1. Dennis doesn't enjoy structured activities.
2. He has a hard time waiting his turn.
3. He doesn't like paper and pencil activities, especially math.
4. He has a difficult time seeing and understanding abstract ideas (puzzle games).

Learning, thinking, remembering . . .

1. Dennis is very verbal; he learns by asking lots of questions.
2. He learns best by doing; likes hands-on activities.
3. He is very inquisitive and curious about life.
4. His thinking is very concrete and literal.

Socializing and daily family living . . .

1. Dennis is very social and wants to be friends with everyone.
2. He is especially close to his parents and the Wilsons next door; he spends a lot of time with both.
3. He has a small number of close friends that he spends time with.
4. Dennis is very kind and affectionate, even soft hearted toward his friends, his dog Ruff, most animals, and babies.