

Subjects and Predicates/Underline & Circle

Name: _____

Date: _____

Circle the subject and underline the predicate.

1. Finally the salesman was a jolly, happy soul.
2. Moon reminded Mord to play tag.
3. Your eyes light up with the demons there.
4. He ate candy cones on his break every day.
5. All the kids had stopped to last year to get him a new CD player.
6. Dingerbread was hung on every branch.
7. How could played all over the North Pole.
8. The rest of the North Pole was a lot old fashioned.
9. A large drop of red paint dripped from Mord's mouth onto the candy cone.
10. The whole room smelled like apples and pine.