

QUIZ: CONFLICT

Directions: Read each of the following examples in the book, write the type of conflict each represents. Your choices are:

- Character vs. character
- Character vs. society
- Character vs. self
- Character vs. nature

1. You're in a clothing store and your friend is asking you to purchase a top. You like it, but she seems to understand you're a little picky and she's trying to get you to buy it. You're a little picky, but she's trying to get you to buy it. What type of conflict is this?
_____

2. You're in a store and you're looking at a pair of shoes. You like them, but you're not sure if you should buy them. You're a little picky, but you're not sure if you should buy them. What type of conflict is this?
_____

3. You're in a store and you're looking at a pair of shoes. You like them, but you're not sure if you should buy them. You're a little picky, but you're not sure if you should buy them. What type of conflict is this?
_____

4. You're in a store and you're looking at a pair of shoes. You like them, but you're not sure if you should buy them. You're a little picky, but you're not sure if you should buy them. What type of conflict is this?
_____

5. You're in a store and you're looking at a pair of shoes. You like them, but you're not sure if you should buy them. You're a little picky, but you're not sure if you should buy them. What type of conflict is this?
_____

6. You're in a store and you're looking at a pair of shoes. You like them, but you're not sure if you should buy them. You're a little picky, but you're not sure if you should buy them. What type of conflict is this?
_____

7. You're in a store and you're looking at a pair of shoes. You like them, but you're not sure if you should buy them. You're a little picky, but you're not sure if you should buy them. What type of conflict is this?
_____