

Apostrophe Practice

1. He _____ goes
(child)

2. He _____ wishes
(son)

3. He _____ lives
(son)

4. _____ eat
(children)

5. He _____ makes
(mother)

6. He _____ goes
(girl)

7. He _____ adds
(daughter)

8. _____ reads
(parents)

Quotation Mark Practice

Write the following sentences using quotation marks.

1. The teacher said, "Good job on this test!"

2. "I love you," she said.

3. "It's a beautiful day," he said.

Book Titles and Quotation Mark Practice

Write the book titles using quotation marks.

1. I read a really good book. Write the title from the book below, using quotation marks. What book does your best friend read?

2. I've been reading Harry and Helen, for years. It's a story about two boys who are adopted. They go on lots of funny adventures.

3. I heard that the cat, and the dog.

Quotation Mark and Underlining Practice

WRITING RULES	WRITING RULES
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Use single</li> <li>• Use double</li> <li>• Use</li> <li>• Use</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Use</li> <li>• Use</li> <li>• Use</li> <li>• Use</li> <li>• Use</li> <li>• Use</li> </ul>

Let's try some writing together.

My class had to memorize "The Boy Who Swam with Piranhas," a poem by Lewis Carroll about the boy in the picture.

I'm reading "The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe."