

Apostrophe Practice

1. He _____ goes
(parent)

2. He _____ wishes
(you)

3. He _____ lives
(they)

4. _____ eat
(children)

5. He _____ makes
(myself)

6. He _____ goes
(your)

7. He _____ adds
(myself)

8. _____ needs
(parents)

Quotation Mark Practice

Write the following sentences using quotation marks.

1. The teacher said, "Good job on this assignment!"

2. She said, "I love you, and I do."

3. "I don't like you!" she said.

Book Titles and Quotation Mark Practice

Write the book titles using quotation marks.

1. The title of the book is "The Hobbit".

2. The title of the book is "The Hobbit".

3. The title of the book is "The Hobbit".

4. The title of the book is "The Hobbit".

5. The title of the book is "The Hobbit".

6. The title of the book is "The Hobbit".

7. The title of the book is "The Hobbit".

8. The title of the book is "The Hobbit".

Quotation Mark and Underlining Practice

Quotation Mark Practice	Underlining Practice
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The teacher • The student • The book 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The teacher • The student • The book • The teacher • The student • The book

Let's try some more together.

Write the following sentences using quotation marks and underlining.

1. The teacher said, "The student said, 'The book is great.'" and underlined the book title.

2. The teacher said, "The student said, 'The book is great.'" and underlined the book title.

3. The teacher said, "The student said, 'The book is great.'" and underlined the book title.

4. The teacher said, "The student said, 'The book is great.'" and underlined the book title.

5. The teacher said, "The student said, 'The book is great.'" and underlined the book title.

6. The teacher said, "The student said, 'The book is great.'" and underlined the book title.

7. The teacher said, "The student said, 'The book is great.'" and underlined the book title.

8. The teacher said, "The student said, 'The book is great.'" and underlined the book title.