

Name _____ Date _____

SOUND IN ALLITERATION

Alliteration is a stylistic device in which a number of words, having the same consonant sound, occur close together in a series.
Ex. Peter picked a peck of pickled peppers.

Underline the letters in each sentence below that contribute to the creation of alliteration.

Please put your pen and paper away.

I had to hurry home.

She sells sea shells by the sea shore.

Go gather green leaves in the garden.

Silly Sally swiftly shoveled snow.

Howard's helmet was heavy.

Christina's cat clawed the couch.

Come and close your closet.

Peter planted petunias in the prairie.

The lazy lion looked like a lump.

The baron was a busy bee.