

Name: _____ Date: _____

Halloween

Halloween is celebrated on the 31st October. It is the eve of the festival of ALL HALLOWS when the spirits of the dead are said to walk the earth on this night.

A common symbol for Halloween is the 'Jack-o'-Lantern'. This is a hollowed out pumpkin, carved to look like an evil face and usually has a lighted candle inside.

Black and orange are the traditional colours of Halloween.

Symbols of Halloween are witches, werewolves, vampires, ghosts, cats, bats and spiders.

Below are some more symbols of Halloween. Label and colour them.

