

Choose the Homograph

Name _____

Homographs are words that have the exact same spelling, but different meanings. Sometimes they are pronounced differently, and sometimes the pronunciation is the same. It is important to use context clues to decide the meaning and pronunciation of the word.

Choose the correct meaning for the homograph in bold for each sentence.

- Joshua says that he can go on the field trip next week.
a. To have permission b. To proceed in a sealed container
- We had to back the car into the driveway so we could unload the truck.
a. The rear part of the human body b. To cause to move backward
- The teacher allowed me to take the change we got when we paid at the store.
a. To transform or convert something b. Money given back when paying for goods or services
- The skies look blue and clear, so I probably is not going to rain.
a. Free from darkness or cloudiness b. Easily seen or understood
- Quang Henderson's kit is made to fit the computer.
a. A slender piece of wood tipped with flammable chemicals b. To fit together, as two things
- Steven's father had to park the car before he could get out.
a. An area of land used for rest and recreation b. To place or leave a vehicle in a certain location for a time
- The teacher asked us to slide to the right as grass, transliterate, or ambulatory.
a. A stone made of mineral matter b. To move or slide from side to side
- On the final exam, we had to recall information we learned during the whole school year.
a. To bring back into memory b. to make or remove from public use or office
- He was so angry that he began to tear up the papers he received in the trial.
a. To pull apart by force b. A drop of water coming from the eye
- There were no run or drain in the sink. I thought I would never finish washing them.
a. To move down from, especially b. A drain connected to a water supply under water