

WORKSHEET – INTRODUCTION, DATE _____

1. One year is the time it takes for the _____ to revolve around the _____.
2. One day is the time it takes for the _____ to revolve around its own _____.
3. One year is _____ days and _____ hours.
4. That is why every four years we have an extra _____.
5. The year is called a _____ year.
6. The axis of the earth is _____.
7. The reason that the equinoxes _____ is because that _____ is tilted.
8. The sun's rays are tilted to the _____, creating a _____.
9. The sun's rays are tilted into _____ the poles for the summer in the _____ and into the _____.
10. The 0-degree meridian is called the _____.
11. The 90-degree meridian is called the _____.
12. There are _____ between any two meridians.
13. For every 15 degrees you travel East you have to set your watch one hour _____.
14. For every 15 degrees you travel East you have to set your watch one hour _____.